NOTE: Since it is the role of a godparent to help the baptised person to persevere in Christian life, godparents must be Catholic. Up to two godparents may be chosen (though only one is necessary). There is to be only one male or female godparent or one of each. A baptised person who belongs to a non-Catholic ecclesial community may act as a witness of the baptism together with a Catholic godparent.

Have you had any other children Baptised here at Holy Family Parish Yes No
(please circle one)

I understand that Baptism is a Sacrament which gives new life in Christ to my child, and that this makes my child a member of God's family, the Church.
I am accepting the responsibility or training my child in the practice of the faith. I accept the duty to bring up my child to keep God's commandments, as Christ taught us, by loving God and neighbour.
I profess my faith in God the Father, Jesus Christ His Son and the Holy Spirit.
I therefore request to have my child baptised into the Catholic Church.
